LOCALLY PRODUCED STEER

ENTRIES DUE:	Friday, May 23, 5 PM
ENTRY FEES:	No Entry Fee
ENTRY FORMS:	Online
EXHIBITS JUDGED:	Wednesday-June 18, 2025 (4-H, FFA, Grange & Independent Show together)
DANISH SYSTEM OF JUDGING

This contest is sponsored by the Shasta County Cattlemen's Association (SCCA). A non-profit organization dedicated to beef promotion and education. SCCA will hold the event in conjunction with the annual Shasta District Fair in Anderson.

Eligibility: This contest will be open to all Shasta County 4-H and FFA exhibitors that meet the following eligibility requirements.

Requirements:

1. Only calves born and purchased from a cattle herd in Shasta or Tehama counties are Eligible for this contest. The steer must possess only one brand and that brand must be from Shasta or Tehama County. Exhibitor must have the breeder sign an affidavit to verify the ranch of origin, age of the animal, and that they have been in possession of that calf at that location since birth. All other transfer of ownership papers must be completed, including brand inspection, Bill of sale or copy of yellow sales slip with entry. The breeder affidavit (copy of yellow slip (change of ownership)) will be due with entry form on May 23, 2025. The affidavit will be viewed by SDF livestock management and SCCA officials prior to the showing of the animals to verify eligibility.

2. All eligible steers must be entered in the Locally Produced Steer division as well as the appropriate market steer class at the Shasta District Fair and meet all fair entry requirements including ownership.

3. All Steers must be tagged and weighed at the Shasta District Fair official Steer tagging day in February.

Evaluation & Placing: The judging will be based on the live animal evaluation by a panel of judges appointed by Shasta County Cattlemen's Assoc. If number of entries deem necessary class may be divided by weight. If the class exceeds 15 entries, class will be divided as appropriate. Winner of each class will compete for final placing.

- Steers in this class will NOT be fitted. The animals should be washed, brushed and blown dry without use of fitting products. Any animals that have the appearance of using show products will be excused from the class by the judges.
- Judges will be provided with Average Daily Gain (ADG) records to be used in their selection process and they will place at least the top five steers.
- Exhibitors are asked to wear appropriate attire for a commercial cattle person, such as long-sleeved shirt/blouse, black or dark blue jeans and boots – Full official 4-H or FFA uniforms are not required. No hats.
